Organization name: Pueblo Grande Museum
Internship location: Phoenix, AZ

About the organization:

Pueblo Grande Museum is an archaeological site museum and repository. We collect, preserve, research, interpret, and exhibit cultural materials from the site of Pueblo Grande and the Greater Southwest. The Museum, part of the City of Phoenix Parks and Recreation Department since 1929, is dedicated to enhancing the knowledge of prehistory, history, and ethnology of inhabitants of the Southwest, and promoting a greater understanding of the diversity of cultures past and present, for our guests and the citizens of Phoenix.

About the internship:

The duties and responsibilities for an internship depend on the area of focus and interests of the student. Potential areas for internships include administration, visitor services or education, collections, and exhibits.

Internships available: 1
Credits: Varies
Semester available: Fall (August – December), Spring (January – April)

Contact name: Laura Andrew
Contact email: laura.andrew@phoenix.gov